Why are teachers leaving the classroom? Por que os professores estão saindo da sala?

Oklahoma educators are holding out for more than the $6,000 per year raise that was signed by the Legislature last week

Almost a third of teachers who began their career in 2010 quit the classroom within five years of qualifying, according to government figures.

Why teachers stay in the classroom?

Questions a good teacher should ask?

How can I make my classroom engaging?
What is the content my students need to know?
Where am I going to get the resources I need?
How will I present the content to my students?
When will I assess my students learning?

What was your best learning experience?

No Barrier Summit 2017 Lake Tahoe

In June, No Barriers Youth and Wells Fargo launched an exciting new project: The Global Impact Challenge.

20 middle and high school educators were selected to participate in our very first Global Impact Challenge, a diversity and inclusion competition designed to spark the best ideas from students for building a world free of barriers, stereotypes and discrimination.

Our group includes Seniors concerned with their future – lack of opportunities for minority students ; mainly jobs for teenagers

Teachers need
good coworkers.
Not just any coworkers, but coworkers who become friends.
When teachers work
well together,
the whole school
succeeds.
